

Does Sentinel offer financial education?

fly! (Financial Literacy for You) is Sentinel's proprietary financial wellness program that helps make goals become reality. In addition to delivering personalized consulting and education, we work with nationally recognized programs that best align with our values and commitment to excellence. These collaborations enable us to efficiently and affordably deliver fly! to any and everyone. Our multi-channel approach includes:

- Online Engagement
- Group Learning
- Individual Counseling.

Learn more about each of these solutions and the resources available to your employees
