

What plans are subject to COBRA?

Virtually all group health plans maintained by employers for their employees are subject to COBRA's provisions, including group health plans of corporations, partnerships, tax exempt organizations, state and local governments. This also includes Health Care Spending Accounts.
